2. If during the meeting, the Chairman proposes to change the agenda and contents of the meeting, the changes must be approved by the General Meeting.

Article 13. Discussion and Q&A at the General Meeting

1. The discussion can only be conducted within the stipulated time and within the scope of the matters presented in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. Based on the number of shareholders attending and the allowed duration of the General Meeting, the Presiding Committee of the General Meeting may choose the method of conducting the meeting. Shareholders conduct discussions according to the instructions of the Chairman during the Online General Meeting by online discussion and questioning with the consent of the Presiding Committee or send questions to the Presiding Committee of the General Meeting through the Online Platform. Only one shareholder is entitled to speak at a time. In case many shareholders have opinions at the same time, the Chairman will invite each shareholder to present their opinions according to the discussion content.

3. Shareholders must speak briefly and focus on the main content to be discussed, in accordance with the approved agenda of the General Meeting. The content of shareholders' proposals must not violate the law, relate to personal matters or exceed the powers of the enterprise. The Chairman of the General Meeting has the right to remind or suggest shareholders to focus on the key content to speak in order to save time and ensure the quality of discussion.
4. The General Meeting agrees that the total speaking time of a shareholder should not exceed 3 minutes/time. If this time limit is exceeded, the Chairman of the General Meeting can request shareholders to make written questions and recommendations, the Secretariat of the General Meeting will take note and the Board of Directors within its competence will answer in writing to shareholders as soon as possible.

Article 14. Approve the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The approval of the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding the reports and statements at the General Meeting is specified as follows:

1. For the contents specified in Clause 1, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises, the content shall be approved when at least 65% of the votes of the shareholders attending and voting at the meeting approve.
2. The remaining contents are approved when approved by the number of shareholders representing more than 50% of the votes of the shareholders attending and voting at the meeting.
3. The percentage of voting options is calculated on the total number of valid votes of the shareholders attending and participating in voting for each content. Shareholders who attend the General Meeting but do not participate in voting (may not participate in voting on all or on one or several contents), the number of shares of such shareholder not participating in voting shall not be counted for each content on which they do not participate in voting and shall not be included in the total number of votes of the General Meeting to calculate the voting results.

Article 15. Voting method to approve contents at the online General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Voting time:
 - a. The time when shareholders can start accessing the Online Platform to perform electronic voting is 02 (two) days before the opening day of the General Meeting, i.e., from 8:00 am on 26/04/2023 until the Presiding Committee announces the end of voting.
 - b. The electronic voting can be conducted before the General Meeting of Shareholders and/or at the General Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders have the right to vote during the time the voting portal opens until the Presiding Committee announces the closure of the voting portal.

2. Voting method:

When performing electronic voting on the Online Platform, shareholders must comply with the obligations specified at Point c, Clause 2, Article 5 of this Regulation. Each shareholder logs into the Online Platform through the access account provided by the shareholder at the Meeting Invitation letter and casts his vote on the Online Platform. Access instructions are posted on the Company's website.

3. Voting mode:

a. Voting mode to approve the opening procedures of the General Meeting, Reports and Statements, Minutes and Resolutions of the General Meeting:

- Shareholders or authorized representatives of shareholders decide to vote by ticking 01 out of 03 boxes respectively "Approve", "Disapprove", "No opinion" for each content and click the "Submit Vote" button to save and send the voting results on the platform. This voting mode is used to approve the Presiding Committee, the Secretariat, the Vote Counting Committee, the Regulation on the Organization of the General Meeting, Reports and Statements at the General Meeting, Resolutions and Minutes of the General Meeting, and other contents.
- Shareholders or their authorized representatives cannot change the voting results after they have been successfully submitted to the Platform. For voting contents that change or arise during the time of holding the General Meeting, shareholders or their authorized representatives shall re-vote/add additional votes for those changing and arising contents. In case a shareholder is unable to perform the re-voting/additional vote, it is considered that the shareholder do not participate in voting on such changing content.

b. Voting mode for election (cumulative voting):

- The number of votes is calculated by the cumulative voting mode, whereby each shareholder has the total number of votes entitled to vote corresponding to the total number of representative shares multiplied (x) by the number of elected members of the Board of Directors and the shareholder has the right to pool all of his or her voting right to one or several candidates or to use only a part of the votes to vote for several candidates. Shareholders can enter the number of votes according to the percentage %, the platform will display the corresponding number of votes that the shareholder has voted for the candidate. The distribution of votes for the candidates will be based on the rule of rounding down to the nearest unit. The number of outstanding votes for the candidates (including the number of votes that Shareholders did not use / which are not enough to vote for all candidates / Excess votes because of the rule of rounding to the nearest unit) will be considered as not used to vote for any candidate.
- The elected members of the Board of Directors are determined by the number of votes from the highest to the lowest, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the specified number of members is reached. In case there are 02 (two) or more candidates with the same number of votes for a member of the Board of Directors, a re-election will be conducted among the candidates with the same number of votes, or they will be selected according to the prescribed criteria in the Election Regulations or the Company's Charter. In case of re-election for candidates with the same number of votes, the winner is the one with the higher number of votes.

4. Other provisions on voting:

- a. Voting results of shareholders or authorized representatives of shareholders are the sum of voting results recorded at the end of voting as announced by the Chairman at the General Meeting of Shareholders. By the end of the voting for each content, which requires opinions of the General Meeting of Shareholders the Online Platform will be locked, and shareholders and authorized representatives of shareholders cannot vote on the content that has been locked. Voting results for each content will be reported by the Vote Counting Committee to the General Meeting immediately after completing the counting of votes.
- b. After the voting period ends, shareholders will know the voting results for each matter announced by the Presiding Committee or the Vote Counting Committee.
- c. When leading the General Meeting, the Chairman must notify the end of voting on the Platform for shareholders to exercise their rights. In case shareholders have problems with voting on the Platform, they can contact the support address mentioned in the Invitation Letter for guidance and support to complete the voting. From the time when the Platform closes the voting content, shareholders do not have the right to change any voted content, the voting results of shareholders are recorded on the Platform as final results and the Company is entitled to exempt from responsibility for voting results of shareholders when shareholders have validly logged in and voted on the Platform.
- d. Voting validity: A valid vote is a vote of a shareholder or an authorized representative of a shareholder who participates in the voting, has selected a voting option and has completed the submission to the Online Platform. Voting results are calculated based on the total number of valid attendance and voting shares of each content.
- e. In case a shareholder successfully logs in to attend the online meeting but does not choose any opinion (does not check any box) on any or all the contents that need to be voted on, the platform will record that he/she does not participate in voting on that content.

Article 16. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders
